

We are like family ...

We help you out where we can and will be by your side when times get rough.

You will always find a sympathetic ear.

We comfort each other when needed.

We build you up when you need help.

We meet a few times a year in different regions of Germany.

We have members that will translate your letters from English to German and vice versa.

We are ...

... a registered non-profit organization located in Aschaffenburg

...founded in June 2009

...active Germany wide

...networking internationally

...with members from Germany, the Netherlands, Switzerland and the USA

...unique in Germany

...convinced that what we do is good and can help you fill the empty spot in your heart

What we do...

We search for fathers and/or relatives in the USA

We offer morale support, i.e. during the search and for the family reunion

We work with search angels in Germany and the USA who are all volunteers

When we have a successful search result we offer to make the first contact

We communicate on facebook and we have a forum and chat on our homepage.
